

Andreas Haglund – New Sh*t

Materiale: https://dansehallerne.dk/static/files/images/newsht\_somcover\_ny3.jpg

Tekst DK

New Sh*t – Et svirp af morgendagens dans!

Vær med, når Dansehallerne eksklusivt to gange om året tager pulsen på, hvad der rør sig i det koreografiske landskab. Vi åbner scenen og lader en ny yngre udvalgt gæstekurator sammensætte et fremadskuende program med den eller de kunstnere, som for kuratoren er uundgåelige, morgendagens kunstnere!

Den 2. december er det femte gang, vi præsenterer den populære platform. Gæstekurator til New Sh*t Vol. 5 er Andreas Haglund.

Vi glæder os til at offentliggøre programmet for aftenen i efteråret 2022.

BIO / Om kuratoren af New Sh*t Vol 5.

Andreas Haglund (Han/Hen) arbejder som danser, performer og koreograf i og omkring København og Stockholm. Bærdygtighed løber som en rød tråd igennem Haglunds kunstneriske praksis. Haglunds kunstneriske arbejde har fokus på kloden og dens væsener og undersøger klimakrisens underliggende kulturelle strømninger, i al deres kompleksitet. Med afsæt i queere- og klima-bevægelsen skaber Haglund dans, koreografier og tekster, og kuraterer nu også, for at lede æstetik, diskurs og praktik hen imod omsorg, glæde og gensidig afhængighed.

Andreas Haglund har en BA i samtidsdans og koreografi fra DDSKS i København med et semester undervejs på ADU i Zagreb. Haglund er også medlem af Dance Cooperative, en platform, et dansestudie og venue for intersektionel praktik og performance organiseret af 16 scenekunstnere. I denne ramme har Haglund faciliteret mange performance-events, hvor han har præsenteret både egne og andre kunstners værker.

Tekst ENG

New Sh*t – a vigorous flick off tomorrow's dance.

With the recurring format New Sh*t, Dansehallerne checks in with what's new in the choreographic landscape. For each edition, a younger guest curator is invited to present a progressive program of choreographers whom the curator believes to be the artists of tomorrow!

The popular platform New Sh*t happens twice each year. The guest curator of New Sh*t Vol 5. is Andreas Haglund.

We can't wait to share the selected program for the evening with you! It will be announced here when it is all set – so stay tuned!

BIO / About the guest curator

Andreas Haglund (He/They) works as a freelance dancer, performer, and choreographer in and around Stockholm and Copenhagen. Sustainability is a red thread throughout his artistic practices. Focusing on the planet and its beings Andreas Haglund's work investigates the cultural undercurrents of the climate crisis in all their complexities.

Informed by social and environmental justice movements, Andreas Haglund creates dance, choreography, and text and now curates to direct aesthetics, discourse, and practice toward care, joy, and interdependence.

Andreas Haglund holds a BA in 'Contemporary' dance & choreography from The Danish International School of Performing Arts in Copenhagen, including an exchange semester at ADU in Zagreb. Haglund is also a member of Dance Cooperative, a platform, dance studio and venue for intersectional practice and performance organised by 16 artists. Within this frame of Dance Cooperative Haglund has facilitated several performance events, presenting both his works and hosting other artists and their works.